

ROCKFORD SHOPS
HIRE HOLLANDERS

AGREEMENT MADE BY FURNITURE COMPANIES.

Will Replace Swedish Workmen—Factory Owners Say That Too Much Clannishness Results From Employing Only One Race—Strikers Receiving Aid From Headquarters.

Rockford, Aug. 31.—There has been no change in the strike situation except that help is being imported from Chicago. The factory owners assert that the employment of one class of people is resulting in too much clannishness and that many evils are growing out of it. It is understood that the companies will gradually replace their present help with Hollanders, or rather mix them up more so that the one race will not be the sole employees. The result of this move, if it is made, is problematical. The union seems to have a strong following among the Swedish furniture workers and they may be expected to stand by it to the last. The eight men who were brought from Chicago yesterday are Hollanders. The strikers are very sanguine of their success. It is understood that they are receiving assistance from the American Federation of Labor.

Ishpeming, Mich., Aug. 31.—The state militia is in readiness, and expects to be summoned here not later than Monday. Sheriff Broad has sworn in additional deputies, and if these are unable to maintain order, will notify the governor at once. The trouble comes over the attempt of the mining companies to start their steam shovels next Monday morning. The local operators having refused to yield, it is understood that the corporations have hired experienced men in Chicago to take their places, and that they will be here Sunday. It is certain the local men will not see themselves supplanted without a disturbance, and serious trouble may result.

TAYLOR LOSES HIS CASE.

South Dakota Supreme Court Decides Against Him.

Pierre, S. D., Aug. 31.—The supreme court yesterday handed down a decision remanding ex-State Treasurer Taylor to the sheriff, who left with him for the penitentiary at night. The opinion was on the jurisdiction of the lower court in giving sentence in excess of the general embezzlement law. The supreme court holds that the lower court did not exceed its jurisdiction, and that after Taylor had served two years he can test the validity of the five-year sentence. The opinion was given by Judge Corson and Judge Kellam concurred. Taylor's attorneys may appeal.

Derender Will Meet Valkyrie.

New York, Aug. 31.—In a heavy sea and against a strong wind the first true windward test Defender and Vigilant have had together. Defender proved its right to its name, crossing the line five minutes and 12 seconds ahead of Vigilant in the third and last of the trial races. At last night's meeting of the America cup committee Mr. Iselin's yacht was formally chosen to defend the America cup against Dunraven's challenger, Valkyrie III.

Law Is Unconstitutional.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 31.—The Supreme Court yesterday rendered a decision in which it held unconstitutional the law passed by the legislature last winter changing the time of the election of the county superintendents from the first Monday in June to the first Monday in September. The case is a political one. As a result of the decision the majority of the county superintendents will remain democratic.

Boys Killed by Lightning.

Portsmouth, O., Aug. 31.—Thursday evening, while Albert and Lewis Lebrun, brothers, were gathering apples at their home near Henley, they were struck by lightning and instantly killed. In the clutches of death Albert, the younger of the brothers, held so tightly to the tree that his arm had to be sawed off to loosen the body.

Havana, Aug. 31.—A report has been received by government officials to the effect that the column of Gen. Ruiz has completely routed and dispersed the insurgent force near Guayamaro. The insurgents left forty dead, and these, according to reports, were buried by the troops.

CALLS IT MURDER.

Wyoming's District Attorney Makes a Scathing Report.

Washington, Aug. 31.—The district attorney of Wyoming has made a report to the government on the killing of Bannock Indians at Jackson's Hole. He says it will be impossible to convict the men who did the killing, as the commissioner before whom they must be brought is in full sympathy with the people there and would discharge them. He characterizes the action of the constable and his deputies as a cold-blooded and premeditated murder. Accompanying the report of the district attorney is a scathing arraignment of the Jackson's Hole settlers, made in a report of the United States deputy marshal, who investigated the trouble.

Officers of the Eastern Star.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 31.—Yesterday forenoon's session of the eighth triennial meeting of the general grand chapter of the order of the Eastern Star was devoted to the reports of committees. At the afternoon session officers were elected for the ensuing three years as follows: Most Worthy Grand Matron of the General Grand Chapter, Mrs. Mary E. ## Visit Prince Bismarck.

Hamburg, Aug. 31.—The German-American veterans visited Prince Bismarck yesterday at the chateau at Friedrichsruhe. Prince Bismarck, who appeared to be in excellent health, walked firmly forward to meet them, welcoming them cordially. He said he was not able to express the joy he felt at the thought that they had come so great a distance to see him. He frequently had the opportunity of welcoming Germans from America, but to-day he felt especially glad to be able to greet so many of his former comrades in arms from the other side of the water. He then invited the four members of the committee to luncheon. All the members of the family of Prince Bismarck were present.

Soldiers to Be Paid.

Washington, Aug. 31.—Secretary Lamont has been seriously considering, but it is not true that he has decided, personally to advance the amount of the deficiency in the appropriation for pay of the officers and men of the army for the last fiscal year, amounting to about $50,000. The secretary's friends in the department have advised him against taking the risk which would be involved in making this advance. The secretary would only say when questioned about the matter that he had authorized no statement that he would make good the deficiency.

An Inhuman Father.

Vincennes, Ind., Aug. 31.—Word has reached here to the effect that Jim Hulan, living near Edwardsport, this county, bound and gagged one of his children, aged 4 years, and took it to an old deserted house and left it to die. The remains were found a few days later by neighbors who were attracted to the house by a large number of buzzards that had collected there, caused by the scent of the dead child, and would not own its remains. His mother, however, identified the dead child as Hulan's. Hulan is now in custody.

Trainmen Fatally Hurt.

Erie, Pa., Aug. 31.—An engine hauling a coal train on the Pittsburgh, Shenango & Lake Erie road jumped the track on the end of the Girard bridge last evening. The engine turned over on the bank, and Engineer William Dunbar was fastened beneath the steam pipe and was slowly scalded to death. His brakeman, John Cordman, was also fatally injured. The engine, just new, had a similar accident and killed Engineer Beaver two weeks ago.

Kicks a Woman to Death.

Anna, Ill., Aug. 21.—John Jones, the keeper of a dining booth on the Southern Illinois Fair grounds, got into a quarrel yesterday with a woman named Mrs. Sarah Mendenhall. She was employed at the booth, and the quarrel was about her wages. Jones knocked her down and choked and kicked her. She died later, and Jones was hurriedly taken out of town to avoid a lynching.

Will Not Go to the Supreme Bench.

Marion, Mass., Aug. 31.—Ex-Postmaster General Bissell says there is no truth whatever in the report that he has been offered the place on the United States supreme court bench made vacant by the death of Justice Jackson.

Wounded Striker Dies.

Wapakoneta, Ohio, Aug. 31.—Alfred Seifred, one of the strikers who was shot here in last Sunday's riot, died yesterday afternoon from the shot he received from Lon Vanskiver's revolver. Vanskiver, who is also very low, was removed to the county jail for safe keeping. Oscar Voorhees had his preliminary hearing, and was sent to jail. The sheriff has sworn in extra help to guard the jail. The National Guard here has stationed men at the armory to be in readiness when needed. More trouble is expected.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 31.—Fire destroyed fourteen buildings, comprising the business section of Libertyville, Lake county, Ill., between 11:30 o'clock last night and 1 o'clock this morning. The flames started in the rear of Schank's hardware store in the main street, and, fanned by a high wind, swept the business section. The population of the town is about 1,000. The buildings for the most part, were frame, and afforded good fuel for the flames. No fire protection had been provided for the village, and when the flames began sweeping through the frame structures, the citizens found themselves unable to save their homes and business houses from destruction.

HOLMES' CONVICTION CERTAIN.

If Tried at Indianapolis He Will Go to the Gallows.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 31.—Detective Geyer and Inspector Gary have located the places where Holmes bought the second-hand furniture and the stove which he left in the Irvington cottage. The drayman who hauled the goods to Irvington was also located, and the men who had dealings with Holmes identified his picture as being the photograph of the man who bought the goods.

There are so many people to identify Holmes as the man who occupied the Irvington cottage that it would be practically useless for him to attempt to prove an alibi in this city or lay the murder of Howard Pitzel on his man "Hatch." If he were brought here for trial it is a foregone conclusion that the jury would send him to the gallows. Further digging in the Irvington cottage cellar brought up a five-gallon oil can and a little toy bicycle which the boy was seen playing with at the cottage.

The druggist who sold Holmes chloroform is also located. Holmes' handwriting appears on two prescriptions at Dr. Wright's drug store at Rural and Washington streets. The Holmes furniture at the coroner's office was identified, and both the coroner's verdict and the grand jury indictment will probably be made to-day.

PASSENGER JUMPED THE TRACK.

Fatal Railway Wreck in Georgia—Two Killed and Two Seriously Wounded.

Macon, Ga., Aug. 31.—Two passenger coaches and a combination baggage and smoking car of an excursion train left the tracks on the Southern railway, between Homan and Pope's yesterday and fifty people, among them many Pythians, were hurt and two killed. The killed: HANCOCK, MRS. C. W., of Americus, Ga.

KENNEDY, J. A., of Macon, Ga.

The seriously injured: Von Brixen, Fred, of Macon. Herrington, Frank, of Macon. Kennedy was caught under the baggage car and killed.

Mrs. Hancock was in one of the coaches which also turned upon its side and was taken from between two of the seats by the coroner. Her spine was broken and she died soon after.

The injured, with the exception of Frank Herrington and Fred Von Brixen, both of Macon, are not dangerously hurt, their injuries being confined to cuts and bruises and broken limbs. It is impossible to explain the cause of the wreck, as the track is said to have been in good condition.

There were over four hundred people on board the train.

NO HOPE OF RESCUE.

A Week or More Must Elapse Before Miners Can Be Reached.

Central City, Col., Aug. 31.—Yesterday was spent at the drowned mines in efforts to free them from water and reach the bodies of the sixteen men who were entombed Thursday night. Water has been rising instead of sinking, and it seems impossible that any one will be able to venture in the workings for a week or more. Several men went down the American for the purpose of opening a communication with the Sleepy Hollow and establish an air circulation, but they soon called for help and were rescued with difficulty, owing to being overcome with foul air. Another attempt was made with an air fan borrowed from the Denmark. The fan was taken to the mouth of the bottling tunnel and the American men undertook to reach their own shaft through that channel at a considerable depth. It is hardly hoped that they will be successful, but at 6 o'clock last night they had not returned, and the bystanders are now speculating on the possible death of this relief force. The impression prevails that five men are alive in the mines, having escaped to a level above the water.

CHOLERA IN HONOLULU.

Natives and Chinese Suffer from the Dread Disease.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 31.—The steamer Monowi, which arrived last night from Australian ports, did not stop at Honolulu as usual. When off that port the steamer was hailed by the American consul in a small boat, who announced that cholera had broken out in Honolulu. Among the natives and Chinese the cholera broke out soon after the steamer Belgic left on her last trip. It is presumed the disease was brought by that vessel. The Monowi did not enter Honolulu harbor harbor, but steamed direct to San Francisco. Her passengers for Hawaii were brought here. There had been eight deaths from the disease among the natives and Chinese.

To Be Opened to Settlers.

Duluth, Minn., Aug. 31.—Col. A. F. Naff, special agent of the interior department, left yesterday for the Red lake ceded lands, where he is to begin operations preliminary to opening the 750,000 acres of agricultural lands to settlers. It is not yet known when the department will decide to open the lands, but as it can under the law do so on short notice, and as only these preliminaries remain to be settled, Col. Naff's departure is a sign that opening will not long be delayed. These lands are as fertile as any portion of the famous Red River valley.

DUN'S WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW.

Improvement Noted in All Branches—Exports of Gold Expected Soon to Cease.

New York, Aug. 31.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: "Improvement in markets and prices continues, and whereas a few months ago everybody was nursing the faintest hopes of recovery, it has now come to be the question in which branches, if any, the rise in prices and the increase of business may go too far. A strong conservative feeling is finding expression, not as yet controlling the markets or industries, but warning against too rapid expansion and rise.

"In some directions the advance in prices clearly checks future business, but encouraging features have great power. Exports of gold continue, but are met by syndicate deposits and are expected to cease soon. Anxieties about the monetary future no longer hinder. Crop prospects, except for cotton, have somewhat improved during the week. Important steps toward reorganization of great railroads give hope to investors. Labor troubles are for the moment less threatening, and some of importance have been definitely settled.

"The industries are not only doing better than anybody had expected, but are counting upon a great business for the rest of the year. The advance in prices of iron and its products has added about $2 per ton more in a single week to the price of Bessemer iron at Pittsburg, and yet the great steel companies are buying wherever they can, while the air is full of reports that this or that finished product will further advance.

"Wool has been speculatively hoisted, so that sales have fallen below last year's. In August 22,200,400 pounds, of which 10,902,900 were foreign, against 25,748,850 last year, of which only 4,539,200 were foreign. The demand for dress goods is still large, and some cancellations of orders for foreign clothes are reported, because goods do not come up to the samples. At the same time the receipts from abroad continue heavy, and the outcome is so far in doubt that manufacturers are not buying beyond their actual needs.

"The prospect for wheat has hardly improved this week, though the price has fallen 1/4 of a cent. Western receipts have decidedly increased, but are only 3,906,905 bushels, against 6,428,294 last year, and Atlantic exports are only 1,373,356 for the week, flour included, against 3,271,113 last year. In the last four weeks, Atlantic exports have been only 4,368,589 bushels, against 11,701,853 bushels last year, and this alone is quite enough to explain the failure to maintain the sensational advance in prices, which soon checked the out-go. Corn is coming forward more freely, and September price has declined a quarter, with the promise of a great crop. Pork and lard are a shade lower.

"Cotton is rising, as if there were no surplus of 3,000,000 bales American carried over to the new-crop year, which begins with next week. Whether exaggerated or not, reports of injury have impressed traders and purchases in three days have amounted to 953,800 bales. The price has advanced to 8.19 cents, and as there is no large supply of actual cotton available at this time the market price can be easily moved.

A MASONIC UNIVERSITY.

$50,000,000 Talked Of as an Endowment Fund.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 31.—Knights Templar are said to be planning the establishment of a great national university for both sexes, to be controlled by and in the interest of all Masons, with a permanent endowment of $50,000,000. The scheme contemplates the erection of a sufficient number of fireproof university buildings to accommodate 10,000 students. While the child of no living or dead Master Mason will be refused admission on account of lack of means, it will be in no sense a home or charitable institution. It is to be built on a beautiful tract of land on the Ohio river, near the West Virginia line.

Fillibusters Arrested.

Wilmington, Del., Aug. 31.—Twenty men were brought here yesterday from Penn's Grove, N. J., and lodged in jail, charged with violating the neutrality laws in having organized a hostile expedition to Cuba. They are still here in custody of the United States authorities, and will be arraigned today. The men under arrest are from Philadelphia and New York, and were apprehended under orders issued by the treasury department.

They Came on The St. Louis and Were Received By Philadelphians—Steamer Made a Record-Breaking Run Just To Show Ball Players a Trick or Two.

New York, Aug. 31.—The English cricket team arrived on the St. Louis. They were met by the Philadelphians. By passing Fire Island at 11:11 o'clock last night, and making the run to Sandy Hook lightship in about two hours, the steamship St. Louis, of the American line, broke her record about forty minutes. The quickest previous voyage was made in six days, seventeen hours and twenty minutes.

MARSH LAND BURNING.

Immense Damage Being Done in Blackford County, Ind.

Upland, Ind., Aug. 31.—In Blackford county, a few miles east of here, several farms are burning up. The fire in the cranberry marsh in Jackson township has assumed a magnitude that is alarming even to those farmers who had thought themselves safe from its ravages. Three hundred acres of muck are burning and here and there upon the wide expanse of ashes a blazing spring up which makes the whole neighborhood lurid.

A 300-acre fire in Jackson township is no trivial affair, even though not a house is destroyed. Every acre of this land is rendered worthless for many generations to come—perhaps forever. It is worth $30 an acre, and so far $9,000 worth of land has been ruined, saying nothing of what crops have been destroyed. It is the most disastrous muck fire the county has ever had.

WAGES ADVANCED.

Ten Thousand Alabama Iron Workers Benefited.

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 31.—Another advance of 50 cents per ton in the price of all grades of Southern pig iron was made yesterday by the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad company. With the advance came another increase of 2 1/2 cents per ton in the wages of that company's 5,000 coal miners, making the third increase in the miners' wages since June, giving them a total raise of about 21 per cent. All the other furnace and mining companies in the district will again make advances similar to those of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad company, thus raising the wage of a total of 10,000 miners. The demand for southern iron is phenomenal. It is even being shipped in large quantities to Pittsburg, and orders are also coming from Europe and Asia. The furnaces are unable to supply the demand. Every idle furnace is preparing to start up at once.

Serious Situation in Samoa.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 31.—The steamship Monowai arrived yesterday from Australia bringing advices from Samoa. There have been several petty quarrels between the rival parties of Samoans, and no one would be surprised at a serious outbreak. Business in the capital, Apia, is almost entirely suspended, and the present disturbed condition is confined to one or two principal German trading houses who have agents around the group.

Inman's Body Found.

New York, Aug. 31.—The body of Robert W. Inman, who was drowned from his yacht Adelaide, when she collided with the iron steamboat Parseus, Aug. 26, was recovered from the water at South Beach, Staten Island. The body was in a fairly good state of preservation.

Italy Asks a Favor.

Phoenix, Ariz., Aug. 31.—Gov. Hughes has received a message from the Italian consul at Denver asking from him the arrest of Alfred and Gustave Bingen, bankers of Genoa, Italy, for fraudulent bankruptcy. They are supposed to be in Arizona or Southern California. Although there is no extradition treaty, he asks they be given through a promise of reciprocity.

Cloudburst at Omaha.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 31.—A violent rainstorm extended over the eastern half of Nebraska yesterday afternoon and night. Two inches of water fell in many sections, interfering to a considerable extent with the movement of trains. It was almost a cloudburst in Omaha. The soil in the state was never in better condition for fall plowing.

GET THEIR PRIZES DESPITE THE ROW

PROTESTS AGAINST CYCLERS
WERE NOT UPHELD.

A. W. Authorities Say That None of The Men Complained of Had Yet Been Transferred, So The Club Gives Out the Trophies Won Last Night—Talks With Racers.

Sanger, Schrader, Zerbel and Bingenheimer of Milwaukee and Lange of Chicago got the prizes that they won in yesterday's races, despite the protest that had been made by Will Howie of Milwaukee. As the Gazette stated last night, these men were protested on the grounds that they had been declared to be Class B men and were not, therefore, eligible to Class A races. The protest was made in the quarter mile open race and as soon as the papers were filed, Referee M. C. Rotter of Milwaukee telegraphed Fred Gerlach, the western representative of the League of American Wheelmen at Chicago asking him for instructions. In the mean time, the racing board had decided to hold the prizes until a ruling was made by the racing authorities so the protested men did not get their diamonds until late in the evening. Considerable "kicking" was done, as some of the men insisted that it was unjust to keep them here when they wanted to go away, while others insisted that Referee Rotter had no right to accept the protest.

Complaints Not Upheld.
The referee did not get his answer until 8:30 o'clock, but when it came and Chairman Sutherland of the racing board, opened it, there was no further room for doubt. It said that "none of the protested men had yet been transferred" so they got their prizes at once, and at 9:30 o'clock most of them left for their homes.

"I did not think the protest would be upheld," said Referee Rotter last night. "The men who made the protest claimed that they had the necessary evidence to back up their claims, but it did not seem to me that the complaint could hold water this time. Some of the riders censured me for receiving it at all, but the question was purely a technical one, and I think I was justified in doing as I did. I shall write Mr. Gerlach a letter tonight giving him the full facts in the case."

"I think the protested men will be transferred on Monday," said one of the riders as he heard the contents of the dispatch from Mr. Gerlach, "but I hardly expected to have the present protest upheld."

The races that were unfinished when the Gazette went to press last night, resulted as follows:

Five Mile Handicap—Anton Stoltz, Milwaukee, 160 yards, first; F. C. Cleveland, Rockford, 175 yards, second; R. B. Ropp, Irving Park, 250 yards, third—time, 12:26.4.
One Mile Consolation—A. K. Wheeler, Janesville, and W. W. Watson, Wausau, dead heat—time, 2:49.

Light Weights Not in Favor.
A great many of the spectators at the recent meet took a great deal of interest in the different makes of wheels that the cracks rode, and especially in their weight.

"We used to think that a fifteen or sixteen pound wheel with an eighty gear was all that a rider needed to win a race," remarked one of the Chicago boys, "but it's different now, for when a man has to buy about three new wheels in a season, it takes the profit out of the work, even if he wins first prize at every meet. When it comes to the final spurt and all the weight of a 150-pound rider is thrown on the frame, a sixteen-pound wheel is too light. It sags and weaves and the rider worries about a smash-up."

Wheels almost up to road weight were ridden by most of the racers in town this week. Here is a list:

Weight.	Wheel.	Rider.
L. Lange.	Fowler.	19
A. F. Bingenheimer.	Andrae.	20
W. C. Schrader.	Andrae.	20
W. Sanger.	Telegram.	19
H. A. Zerbel.	Telegram.	19
W. Howie.	Telegram.	17
G. E. Becker.	Columbia.	19
R. P. Rie.	American.	18
A. Burr.	Fowler.	21
A. Stoltz.	Telegram.	19 1/2

"The boys as a whole are well satisfied with their prizes here," remarked one of the cracks, "with the exception of Stoltz who thinks he got the worst of it on the valuation of his diamond."

W. C. Schrader of Milwaukee, who was here this week is but eighteen years old and has won twenty five first prizes this year, besides a large number of second and third prizes.

"Sanger can beat me on a quarter dash," remarked Schrader to a Gazette reporter "but in a mile race I can make it interesting for him. Schrader made a great record at Marinette where he rode five miles in 11:29 1/2."

BLIND PIG WAS ON AT EVANSVILLE

THREE MEN FACE THE COURT OF JUSTICE.

Mark Matthews, Formerly of This City, Pays His Fine of $75. But W. J. Hahn, Late of Albany, and Frank Nelson, a Native, Will Fight Their Cases.

'Too much Janesville beer has been carted to Evansville this summer. The village is in stirred by a blind pig crusade and Mark Matthews, late of Janesville; William J. Hahn, late of Albany; and Frank Nelson, a native, have been caught.

Matthews pleaded guilty and paid $75 and costs, but the other two did not give in so easily. Matthews, it will be remembered, worked at the carpenter's trade while here, but went to the "cut off" town last summer. Occasionally a man would want a glass of beer with his sandwich, and on some of these occasions, Matthews was accommodating. The result was that Village Marshal Brink took him into custody and Matthews pleaded guilty when the case came before Justice W. R. Phillips and paid his fine of $75 together with all costs amounting to several dollars more.

The same night that Matthews was arrested, Village Marshal Brink also arrested William J. Hahn on a similar charge. Hahn, however, knew how to act as he was the survivor of the late war at Albany, in which Janesville men and axes figured, and had been in court many a time before.

Hahn Made a Fight.
Hahn was not the man to pay $75 without a gurgie, so he pleaded not guilty and his trial was set for September 14 at which time District Attorney Jackson will proceed to "Shaffer" him. Hahn was proprietor of a resort known to fame as "Camp 20" at Albany, and at one time made a deal whereby the Schlitz Brewing Company, of Milwaukee, became possessed of realty and mortgages amounting to several thousand dollars, while Hahn got half beer—about $2,500 worth—and the balance in money. Many charges of liquor selling were made against him, but in nearly all of the cases he managed to clear himself. Some time ago he located in Evansville, and it wasn't long before the trouble began with the Rock county authorities.

District Attorney Jackson went to Evansville this morning to prosecute Frank Nelson, who was arrested and held in $800 bonds on a similar charge before Matthews was found. Nelson has been in jail here since his arrest, and was taken to Evansville this morning. Justice Phillips will also hear this case.

EDGERTON MAKES STATUETTES. Miss Jean Miner Designing Figures For the Art Clay Works.

Miss Jean Miner, the sculptor of one of the Wisconsin statues at the World's fair, is designing for the Edgerton pottery. L. J. Towne is backing the enterprise and artists, sculptors and connoisseurs speak in unstinted terms of praise of the figures that are being made. The soft tint and fine texture of the Edgerton clay renders it especially fit for this purpose. It is the intention of this company to employ well known sculptors of high repute to model the original pieces, thus presenting a high standard of production. In addition to statuettes, art tiles, friezes and other moral decorations are also to be manufactured, negotiations being pending for the production of a special frieze for a large building in Chicago. Among the figures now produced, one entitled Nydia, the heroine of Bulwer Lytton's Last Days of Pompeii, is eliciting much praise. The artist has preserved in clay the subtle grace of form and poise which has won such great renown for Bodenhausen's famous picture of this subject. Some twenty-five pictures have already been made and as many more will be completed in the next two months.

MORE GRAIN IS COMING IN NOW

Barley is offered rather sparingly, farmers being unwilling to accept 30 and 35 which is about the range for fair to good quality. Choice bright heavy samples command a shade higher figures. Corn owing to light offerings is selling at 33 and 35 cents an advance of 2 to 3 cents. Hogs $3.40 to $3.75 per hundred.

SAILING AWAY.

Sailing away with the wind abeam,
And the wide, wide sea before;
Sailing away in a lover's dream
To the port of the golden shore,
Idle hands on the rudder bands,
Hope in the sunrise fair,
And hearts as light as the sea bird white
Afloat in the morning air.

Love, in the dawn of that faroff time,
Did you guess of the weary way?
Dearest, when life seemed a summer rhyme,
Could we tell where we went astray?
Silent tears through the coming years,
Darkness for you and me,
And doubt and dread of the wilds ahead
Fell chill as we sailed a-sea.

Sailing ashore with a waning wind
On the glass of a dreaming tide,
Leaving the dark of the deep behind
For the light of the other side,
Loosen hands from the rudder bands!
Ah, to the margin foam
Comes breath of land o'er the golden sand.
Oh, sweet is our welcome home!
—William Woodward in Chambers' Journal.

A BICYCLE CHASE.

Milo Warren was making a call on a girl to whom he was fondly attached, although he had never told her so. But this was a case where actions speak louder than words, and—leave a girl alone for finding out if a young man regards her with favor. Every girl is clairvoyant where affairs of the heart are concerned.

They were talking about their birthdays and the pleasant custom of giving presents at such a time.

"Let me see," said Milo thoughtfully, "did you say your birthday came in September, Miss Nellie?"

"I did not say," remarked Miss Nellie demurely.

"Then it was December, wasn't it? Some lucky fellow will be giving you a diamond, perhaps."

"Or a souvenir spoon," laughed Nellie. "You know they made jewel spoons for birthday gifts, but all the girls changed their birthdays to December, and the young men could not stand the expense, and they sent a petition to the manufacturers, asking them to discontinue the custom; so no more spoons are in the market."

"I—I—I—really wish you would tell me when your natal day arrives. I might at least send you a bunch of roses, in remembrance of all the—happy days we have spent together. Is it this month, Miss Nellie?"

"You remind me of the parlor game, 'Is it this? Is it that?'" said Miss Nellie, and then fearing that the young man was becoming sentimental she turned the conversation to other subjects.

But the next day Milo Warren dropped casually into the store where Miss Nellie Newton's best brother was engaged as bookkeeper and inquired solemnly at the grated window which permitted a segment of his countenance to appear if that young man would take lunch with him.

"Certainly," was the brusque reply from a mouth full of pens. "I'll meet thee at Philippi—I mean at Hunger & Co.'s—in an hour."

He was there, and at the pleasant spread of good things provided Milo Warren propounded this conundrum:

"If you like a girl awfully, but haven't told her so, and you think she maybe likes you awfully—no, I don't mean that—but if that girl has a birthday and you want to make her a present, and she won't tell you when it is—the birthday, you know—oh, hang it all, I'm everlastingly mixed up. Can't you help a fellow out?"

Lyman Newton laid aside his knife and fork and looking Milo in the face, asked seriously:

"Any insanity in your family, Milo?"

"None that I ever heard of outside of my own case," was the depressed answer.

"Reducing your heroics to a plain statement, then, you want to give a girl of your acquaintance a birthday present?"

"Exactly."

"Is she an 'old woman'?"

"What do you mean?" roared Warren, turning red. "I'll thank you to speak with respect of my friends—besides I—"

"Oh, no harm done; don't get riled so easily. I wanted to know if she belonged to the past age or the present. I take it, then, that she's a 'new woman'?"

"I understand now. Yes, I believe she has advanced opinions, but she isn't one of those dreadful creatures that advocate the wearing of bloomers. Nellie is the soul of womanly modesty and—"

"Nellie? Do I know this bright particular star?"

"Why, of course you do—I quite forgot—she's your own sister!"

"Well, I like that! And you want to make her a birthday present and don't know the day. Sorry, old fellow, but I can't help you out. Nellie would take my head off if I told."

That ended the lunch, but an unforeseen thing happened. Just as Milo Warren left his company at the corner he saw an urchin he knew. It was the inflection known as Nellie's youngest brother, aged 7, capacity for mischief seven times seven, precocity unlimited by any period of time.

Milo, with malice prepense, engaged the dear child in a surfeit of sweets, and then asked, as if the idea was not of the least consequence and had just occurred to him:

"When does sister Nellie have a birthday?"

The dear child looked at him for a moment, drew his mouth round under his ear, elevated both eyebrows and said in a confiding, infantile voice:

"What'll you give ter know?"

Advantageous terms being made, the boy puckered his mouth for a whistle, thought better of it and gave the following Saturday as his sister's birthday.

"An if yer want to make yerself solid—see, just send her a real stunner of a bike."

"What! A bicycle? Does she ride?"

"How kin she? I reckon she kin learn, mister. Yer just send that bike—there ain't nothin Nell wants wuss nor that."

With this advice and being sworn to secrecy, the small terror bowed himself off.

It gave Milo Warren something to do to purchase that bicycle and have it delivered to Miss Nellie on her birthday in an anonymous manner. He expected it back every hour for about a week, but it did not come, and he felt safe. The small brother had not betrayed him after all.

But after a little he began to wish he had, for Miss Nellie had evidently mounted that bicycle and ridden out of his life. He called, but she was out on her bicycle, no matter what the hour was, noon or night, and he got himself run over on the street and knocked down daily by dashing out from sidewalk corners to see who the rider was and getting hurt for his pains. When he could stand it no longer, he came to a sudden resolve—he would buy a bicycle for himself and perhaps be able to find Nellie.

And now began an exciting chase for life and liberty, for at one moment the amateur bicyclist was under the feet of a trampling horse, the next he was running over a wrathful pedestrian, and he usually ended his experiences by picking up his frisky steed and carrying it to the shop for repairs.

And all this time he never caught a glimpse of Nellie, but he was inclined to think he divined the cause. Judging from his own experience in learning to ride a bicycle, Nellie might be exercising her own fractious acquisition on some remote roadway outside the city limits—or, dreadful thought, might even be laid up herself for repairs. He called on the bookkeeper brother, but found him busy and noncommittal. So he waited and tried to possess his soul with patience and learn to ride a bicycle without the zigzag motion that had endangered the lives of the populace and nearly caused his arrest by the police.

Then he made the discovery that if he gave his wheel its head it would behave much better than when he guided it carefully, to the end that it traversed both sides of the street at once. After acting like a thing possessed it learned to behave, and he found himself skimming along like a bird on the wing, with an exultant sense of freedom and delight, and he longed to see Nellie and tell her what he had been trying to say for months—that he loved her!

And at that moment there whizzed past him a vision in bloomers, one of those dreadful new women of whom he had heard and now was to see. He almost felt that it was disloyalty to gentle little Nellie to even look at such an apparition, but somehow she looked so quaint in her saucy jacket and baggy trousers, her neatly gaitered feet were so pert and independent, that Milo looked and looked again. Then he gave a great whoop and took after the flying wheel like a streak of lightning.

His confidence stood him instead of skill. He went spinning along in fine style until he reached a parallel with the girl in bloomers, then he leaned over to speak to her, toppled and fell in a heap, but not before he had gasped, "Nellie!"

That young lady skillfully eluded the wreck, made a fancy run and turn, and as Milo gathered himself up, said pleasantly:

"Why, Mr. Warren, I didn't know that you rode a wheel."

"I don't," said the young man ruefully, feeling of his elbow to determine whether it was dislocated or merely abraded, "but you, Miss Nellie, are quite an expert."

Miss Nellie murmured something about the wheel being a present from her brother, and that she had not cared to ride, but did just to please him.

"But you ought to see my little brother ride," she said, with enthusiasm. "He rides the wheel when I am not using it, and he makes it spin. Why, he rides standing up, and I'm afraid something will happen to him."

Milo was walking along, leading his wheel, as if he preferred that way, and Miss Nellie gave him several exhibitions of her skill, and each moment made a stronger and more lasting impression on the poor fellow's heart. But even bicycle courtship comes to an end, and they were at Nellie's home, and he must leave her, unless—he asked for a glass of water, and before it was brought he sat down with the wheel on the sidewalk. It was a sudden and most effective stroke of art. Nellie cried and asked if he was killed anywhere. Mrs. Newton brought camphor. They got him into the house, and then he was able to speak, and said what was true enough—that he had lost his head for a moment.

The two most expert cyclists on the avenue are Milo and Nellie. You will recognize her by her brown bloomer suit, which is much admired, and him by the glad smile which knows his expressive countenance. Nellie knows now who gave her the wheel, and Milo has had another example of the total depravity of the small brother. Nellie's birthday comes in January, but to expedite matters the imp changed it to July. However, all's well that ends well.—Mrs. M. L. Rayne in Detroit Free Press.

Princess Clementine, mother of Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria, is undoubtedly the most astute and clever of all the children of King Louis Philippe of France. She is the only woman who can boast of having downed Prince Bismarck at his own game, and is renowned throughout the length and breadth of Europe for her statecraft, her diplomacy, and for her political prescience and sagacity. To her more than to anybody else is due the wonderful progress and present prosperity of Bulgaria, and if Prince Ferdinand alone, among all the old world sovereigns, has been able to dispense with a civil list and to pay out of his own pocket the greater part of the expenses of his really luxurious and grandly appointed court, it is due to the munificence of his mother, Princess Clementine is the youngest of Louis Philippe's four daughters. Her mother, in one of her letters, spoke of her as lively and impetuous. A good deal of this remains. But she commands her tongue as though she were an old statesman, and if her impulses remain still quick they never hurry her into rashness. She has a light, bluish-gray eye and her face is a beaming one, which is not a characteristic often found associated with a strongly hooked nose. In her case the hook is not long at the base, but that of a bird. She has a wonderfully melodious voice, and this in spite of deafness so great that any one with whom she converses must speak to her through an ear trumpet by means of an acoustic tube. She has a lively way of adjusting the instrument to her ear, and she studies with a soft smile and inquiring expression the countenance of her interlocutor. Her language is choice and easy when she speaks French. She can chat and write in English, German and Hungarian. Michélet was her professor of history when she was a young girl, and she devoted herself with success to music, and especially to the harp. Although several years older than Queen Victoria, she is still very alert and very active. Nothing seems to fatigue her, and, judging by appearances, she is good for many years yet, in infinitely better physical and mental condition than her brothers, the Duc de Nemours, Duc de Aumale, and the Prince de Joinville, the latter two being considerable her junior. Her wealth is enormous, like that of all the children of King Louis Philippe. At her death her fortune will be divided between her children, the principal share going to her two sons, Prince Ferdinand, who is the youngest, and Duke Philip of Coburg, who married the king of Belgium's eldest daughter, and who was with his brother-in-law, the late Crown Prince Rudolph of Austria, on the morning of the tragedy at Meyerling.

Corpses Made Into Marble.

Dead Bodies Transformed Into Solid Stone by Means of Antiseptic Gas.

Thomas Holmes of Brooklyn, an expert on the subject of embalming fluids, claims to have perfected a process by which the human body can be petrified. He calls it the antiseptic gas process of embalming, and says that within a week he will make tests at Bellevue Hospital, New York. Dr. Holmes has in his office a petrified arm which looks like a piece of marble. Dr. Holmes claims that the antiseptic gas can now be manufactured as cheaply as any fluid in use for embalming. After the gas has been injected, the doctor says, the body will gradually solidify and turn white as marble, even the nails and hair, but the latter only close to the skull. Dr. Holmes is now 78 years old. He said: "I believe I have discovered a process of embalming superior to the old Egyptian. The arm which I embalmed by the process is as hard as stone and will remain so forever. Now, I am about to organize a company for the manufacture of glass caskets lighted by electricity, by which the living can view the faces of their dead friends. God intended man to return to dust, but there are a good many who would find comfort in looking on the faces of their dead."

Electricity in Europe.

Electrical lines in Europe have increased in number during 1894 from forty-three to seventy, their length from 305 to 700 kilometers, the power at the central stations from 10,650 to 18,150 kilowatts and the number of self-moving vehicles from 538 to 1,236. Germany leads in length of lines with 366 kilometers, then comes France with 96; England, 69; Austria-Hungary, 45; Switzerland, 37; Belgium, 22; Italy, 19; Spain, 14. The trolley system is the favorite, being used by 55 out of 70 lines.

A Wise Father.

"My father," said the small boy to the woman who was calling on his mother, "is a great man. He knows what time it is without even looking at his watch."

"What do you mean by that, Tommy?" asked the visitor.

"Oh, when I holler out and ask him what time it is in the morning, he always says it's time to get up. And when I ask him what time it is in the evening, he always says, 'Time to go to bed.'"

A Museum Has Him.

Visitor (dime museum)—What is there remarkable about that man?

Attendant—That man! He's the greatest freak on exhibition. He is the man who says he's staying in the city all summer because he's too poor to get away.

Polite Literature.

Gentleman—You are a devotee of polite literature, I presume.

Miss McShoddie—Yes, indeed; I have half a dozen books on etiquette.

FINANCIAL SCHOOL.

The growth of wealth between 1880 and 1890 was more steady and uniform than during any other period of our history.

It is estimated that in 5 per cent of our city houses the value of the furniture and fittings equals that of the building.

In 1890 the census reports estimated that the wealth of the country was about $62,600,000,000, or nearly $1,000 per head.

The District of Columbia, not including the government buildings and public works, has an assessed valuation of $99,401,787.

The state of Ohio comes very close to Pennsylvania in the matter of wealth, having an assessed value of $1,534,360,508.

Our savings banks, being supported mostly by the middle and poorer classes of people, furnish perhaps the best indication of the prosperity or adversity of the masses.

The amount of wealth invested in our manufactures is increasing in a larger proportion than that put into any other form of production.

New York is the wealthiest of the states. The value of its real and personal property reaches the enormous aggregate of $2,651,940,006.

It is estimated from the returns of the eleventh census that 95 per cent of the wage-earners of this country own less than $10,000 each.

During the years between 1860 and 1870 the wealth of the northern states advanced 56 per cent, while that of the southern diminished 34 per cent.

The greatest difficulty in estimating the wealth of the United States lies in ascertaining the value of the personal property, which constitutes a very considerable item of our national wealth.

Between 1850 and 1860 the wealth of this country increased 126.5 per cent; in the next decade, between 1860 and 1870, it had increased 85.5 per cent; between 1870 and 1880, the increase was 45 per cent, and between 1880 and 1890 the increase amounted to 43.6 per cent.

MAYOR BARRED OUT OF LABOR PICNIC

TRADES UNION AND HIZZONER AT ODDS.

Baines Accused of Selling Non-Union Cigars and a Protest is Made Against Allowing Him to Figure in The Labor Day Demonstrations Next Week.

Hizzoner, Mayor Baines, won't ride in the Labor day parade Monday. His name has been stricken from the list of the speakers.

It is given out cold that the mayor can't play in organized labor's backyard.

Non-union cigars caused the trouble.

A week or two ago Mayor Baines was visited by Chairman McKeigue, of the Federated Trades Council, and asked to make a speech at the Labor day picnic.

"I'm not a speaker," the mayor responded smilingly, "and I'd do you more harm than good."

"Well, we want to use your name in our list of speakers, anyway," was the reply and Mayor Baines, taking that to be one of the obligations of his office, said he had no objection.

Five days later he got a letter signed by Secretary T. J. Anderson, of the Federated Trades, stating that the Cigarmakers' union objected to him because he sold non-union cigars, and that the Labor day invitation must therefore be withdrawn.

Would Refuse To March.

Members of the Cigarmakers' union went before the arrangement committee, it is announced, and said that if Mayor Baines took part in the demonstration, their union would not. They said he had been unloading a lot of cheap cigars from a non-union Ohio factory.

Mayor Baines was seen by a Gazette reporter today and said:

"All there is in the cigar story is that I took some cigars from an old customer of mine in Ohio in payment of tobacco. I have been getting rid of them as fast as I can, using them to pay livery bills, hotel bills, etc. I'm not in the cigar business, and have no agent on the road, but if it is to my interest to take cigars in settlement of an account, I shall very likely continue to do so. The talk that these goods I have been selling are prison-made is not true. They are clean, well-made cigars, as good as any man need smoke."

LIGHT FROSTS CAME TONIGHT

SUMMER OF POORLY-PAID TOIL

Man and Wife Walking From Town to Town Seeking Work.

A man and his wife, tanned and footsore, have been seeking work this week in Rock county. Without home, without money and apparently without friends, they were going from place to place in search of work that "body and soul" might be kept together. They have traveled hundreds of miles this summer and have just managed to eke out a miserable existence either by a few days' labor here or there or by charity's hand. And yet in this most deplorable condition the woman shares her husband's adversity with a strong heart and shows a willingness to stay by him to the end.

GUARDED WITH GUNS AND FORKS

Harmony Farmers Were Ready to Receive Thomas Trinwith

Farmers in the town of Harmony stood guard over their houses with shot guns and pitch forks last night. Thomas Trinwith was on a rampage and smashing everything within reach. Today Sheriff Appleby and Officer Hogan got him and lodged him in jail despite his howls that he could "lick them both."

The neighbors say Trinwith is insane, and want a commission of physicians to examine him.

BIG THRESHING DONE BY DUTTONS

Thirteen Hundred Bushels of Oats in Five Hours and a Quarter.

Tuesday Dutton & Sons, with an eight-horse power "Little Advance," threshed 1,300 bushels of oats in five hours and fifteen minutes, at George Grundy's farm in the town of Janesville. The next day, at Thomas McCrae's, in Milton, they threshed 450 bushels of oats in one hour and thirty minutes. The yield of oats is reported good in all sections of the country, and in many places is the heaviest known in many years.

WAGON RAN OVER A CHILD

Three Year Old Member of George Lackner's Family Has a Narrow Escape.

A three year old child of Geo. Lackner at Indian Ford, fell under a moving wagon, the wheels passing over his body. No bones were broken and with proper nursing the injuries sustained will end in a few days.

CAPTAIN GIBSON WINS PRIZES.

Janesville Physician Distinguishes Himself At Camp Douglas Rifle Range.

Captain James Gibson, inspector of small arms practice of the First Regiment, covered himself with glory at the state rifle competition to select a team to go to the inter-state competition. The final shooting was done yesterday and the week's results showed that Captain Gibson wins both the Badger and the Zwietsch medals. He prefers the former and as the acceptance of the one bars the other he will take the Badger. Captain Gibson also won a $5 prize for making an aggregate of 83 out of 100 points at 200 yards and the same amount for making the best score at 600 yards. He made the highest score of the week at fixed distances.

Captain Joe Whiting of Colonel Schadel's staff, also won a $5 prize, he and Captain Gibson being two of the seven men to make a score of 83 at 200 yards. Private Charles H. Gage also did well, but did not get on the state team which is made up of the ten highest men of the regimental teams range in order as follows: Garz, Fourth regiment; Pratt, Third regiment; Yeakle, First regiment; Bracken, Fourth regiment; Elart, Third regiment; Monahan, Second regiment; Fowler, Third regiment; Fergstadt, Second regiment; Tibbetts, Second regiment; Kirkland, Fourth regiment.

MARKED THEIR SILVER WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Burnham Entertain Friends Very Pleasantly

It was a novel surprise party that Alderman and Mrs. S. C. Burnham perpetrated on a number of their friends last evening. When the fifty guests sat down to a well loaded table each found a card at the plate making the simple announcement that the occasion was the silver wedding of the host and hostess. The evening was spent most pleasantly, and ere the guests left for their homes they all joined in the hope that as time silvered their hosts' hair, it might silver the lining of all the trouble-clouds that come over life's sky.

WILD MAN IN NEWVILLE WOODS

Anybody Who Has Lost Him Should Make Application at Once.

Anybody who has lost a wild, hairy man of the woods, about six feet tall, weighing something like one hundred and sixty pounds, can probably find him over on the hills near Newville, as one is reported to have been seen there a few days ago. The Elgerton Reporter suggests that wild men of the woods are fast going out of date and as this is perhaps the last of the race it might be well to have a bee and capture him before he changes his mode of living.

When the Shah of Persia left Berlin some years ago, the garrison watchword given out was "Schweinfurth." This means, or is a pun upon, "The pig is gone." The Shah was a nasty cuss. The Hot Springs, Ark. Thomas Cat says that "never since the sphinx raised his head out of the desert, and the cave-dwellers dangled their feet from the tips of dizzy precipices, the surface of the earth rolled in waves of flames and four-legged birds paced the streets of lost cities, have cheap theatrical caravans been praised and puffed and slobbered over as they have by the daily press of this city."

Moral beauty cannot co-exist with radical defects of principle. The character that is unable to resist temptation or unwilling to cling faithfully to duty is no more truly beautiful, whatever its generous impulses or amiable traits, than a figure which cannot support its own weight. Parts of it may be admirable; but, as a whole, as a unity, it cannot be rightly called a beautiful character, for it lacks the foundation.

Narcoti-Cure

CURES THE TOBACCO HABIT IN 4 TO 10 DAYS OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Use All the Tobacco You Want Till Your "Craving" is Gone.

Narcoti-Cure is the only remedy in the world that acts directly on the nerves and drives the nicotine from the system in four to ten days. It leaves the patient in better health than before taking, and is warranted free from all injurious ingredients.

Narcoti-Cure is popular because it allows the patient to use all the tobacco he wants while under treatment, or until the "craving" and "hankering" are gone. It is then no sacrifice to throw away tobacco forever.

Narcoti-Cure is sold at the uniform price of $5 a bottle, and one bottle cures.

Money refunded if a cure is not effected when taken according to directions.

PROF. W. N. WAITE, Of Amherst, Mass., Chewed Tobacco For 46 Years, and Was Cured by Narcoti-Cure.

AMHERST, Mass., Feb. 8, 1895. The Narcoti Chemical Co., Springfield, Mass.

Gentlemen:—Replying to yours of the 1st would say that I have used tobacco for 46 years and of late have consumed a 10 cent plug a day, besides smoking considerably. I commenced to use tobacco when I was only 11 years old, and have never been able to give up the habit until I took Narcoti-Cure, although I have tried other so-called remedies without effect. After using your remedy four days all "hankering" for chewing disappeared, and in four days more smoking became unpleasant. I have no further desire for the weed, and experienced no bad effects, whatever. I am gaining flesh, and feel better than I have for a long time. To all who wish to be free from the tobacco habit I would say use Narcoti-Cure. Yours truly, W. N. WAITE.

If your druggist is unable to give you full particulars about NARCOTI-CURE, send to us for Book of Particulars free, or send $5 for a bottle by mail
